A. Overview

1. Scope

This Privacy Policy and the Cookie Policy (can be found here) applies to all entities of Yokoy (see A. 8 ("Yokoy" or "we")). You can use our Cookiebot to granularly determine which optional cookies you want to allow and which you do not.

2. Security and compliance

Data protection is of utmost importance to Yokoy. We ensure through various technical and organizational measures (TOMs) as well as contractual measures that your data is always kept up to date, stored securely and processed in accordance with Swiss (Federal Data Protection Act; FADP) and European data protection regulations (in particular the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR). This applies both in our company and in the cooperation with our partners and suppliers as outlined in our Partner Code of Conduct. Yokoy has also established an Information Security Management System (ISMS) in accordance with the requirements of the ISO 27001:2013 standard, which has been certified by TÜV Rheinland since November 2022. The processing of card data is certified according to PCI-DSS 4.0 Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard by PGI (Protection Group International). Penetration testing through an independent third party is conducted on an annual basis.

Yokoy is further certified by the Spanish State Tax Administration Agency (AEAT), enabling our customers to safely utilize digitized receipts and invoices, and remove the burden of collecting and storing physical copies as it is confirmed here. As part of this certification, we use Q-Seal provided by D-Trust which is an electronic token and therefore cannot be shared publicly for security reasons.

Our legal security and compliance hub shall provide a quick overview of our efforts so that our stakeholders are up to date with the most relevant documents. Yokoy runs on high-availability mode on the Google Cloud Platform. The cloud data is stored in Zurich, Frankfurt and St. Ghislain, Belgium. An overview of the certifications can be found at Google Cloud security or specifically for data centers at data center security.

3. International transfers

Despite our best try to work with Swiss or EU Partners wherever we can, international data transfers cannot always be avoided. We make sure that the transfer of data is in line with the mechanisms in chapter V of GDPR and Art. 16 ff. FADP.

4. Storage and deletion

We store the data only as long as it is necessary for the fulfillment of the contract or the statutory retention periods upon customers' request. This is subject to your right to deletion in accordance with Art. 17 GDPR, provided that the requirements for this are met.

5. Third parties

We are aware of our responsibility towards third parties. Therefore, we conduct a rigorous screening before engaging with third parties. Such screening includes data protection, security, utility and finance review. Besides the Partner Code of conduct we are following legal developments closely and make sure our partners are doing the same, being up to date with legal and security developments.

6. Your rights

The FADP and the GDPR grant the person whose data is processed (data subject) several rights with which the person can influence the data processing. For an overview of the rights and how you can exercise them please see section G of this Privacy Policy.

7. Responsibility and review

This Privacy Policy is reviewed at least once a year and signed off by our internal Data Protection Officer. The last update results from the versioning under the title.

8. How to reach us?

B. Categories of personal data

The personal data as defined in Art. 5 FADP and Art. 4 GDPR we process are divided into the following categories:

- Basic data (e.g. last name, first name)
- Contact details (e.g. telephone, email, postal address)

- Browser and device data, meta or boundary data and usage data, content data that you submit to us (e.g., through the contact form, registration for newsletters, webinars, and protected content or applications as well as spend management receipts).
- Location data for trip reports
- Contact, sales, contract and payment data in our customer relationship management system.
- Customer and prospect point of contact

C. Categories of data subjects

Situation	Category of data subjects
Yokoy Expense and Yokoy pay modules	Employees of the customer who have received access to Yokoy
Yokoy invoice	Supplier of the customers who are included in the invoices
Visiting our website or our social media links	Website or social media visitors.

D. Use cases of data processing

D.1. Data processing when using Yokoy

The data processed when using our software depends on the Yokoy modules in use. Further information on how we use artificial intelligence can be found in our AI Policy. A list of actual subprocessors is published in our legal, security and compliance section of the website. A data processing Addendum is part of the SaaS contract concluded between Yokoy and the customer.

In this context Yokoy is the processor and the customer is the controller.

Yokoy Package (as applicable)	Processed data categories
Yokoy Expense	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Last name, first name, business e-mail address, cost center and content data uploaded by Customer into Yokoy, which may contain Personal Data. - Additional data fields can be added at the Customer's request and may contain Personal Data. - Google location data (geocoding), e.g. for calculating mileage allowances on business trips or displaying business trips in Yokoy. The data is either entered by the customer or comes from extracted data from the customer's business travel provider via API, SFTP or custom file. For further information see https://developers.google.com/maps/documentation/javascript/examples/geocoding-simple
Yokoy Invoice	Supplier name and supplier ID as well as content data uploaded by Customer (invoices). Additional data fields can be added by the Customer and may contain Personal Data.
Yokoy Pay	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cardholder data: Last name, first name, address, phone number, email address (for 3DS or tokenization). - Account data: Account number and account information, - Card data: Partial primary account number ("PAN") expiration date, CVV, service code - Authentication data: card validation codes/values, full card data (from the magnetic stripe or chip), personal identification number ("PIN"), sensitive authentication data, and PIN locks.

	- Transaction data related to electronic payment card transactions.
Custom files	Data processing according to the Customer's specifications.
Apple Pay (optional)	When a user makes a purchase, Apple Pay uses a device-specific number together with a unique transaction code. This means that the credit card number is never stored on the user's device or on Apple servers. Apple never shares card numbers with merchants when the user pays. When the user pays with a debit or credit card, Apple Pay does not store any data about transaction that could be traced back to the user. And with Apple Pay, data is only stored for troubleshooting, fraud prevention and legal purposes. (from https://www.apple.com/chde/privacy/)
Google Pay (optional)	When the user pays, Google Pay sends a virtual account number to the merchant instead of the actual card number - so the user's payment information is always well protected. (from https://safety.google/pay/). Here you can find the setting options for Google Pay: Google Pay privacy settings.

D.3.7. Partner

As outlined in more detail in the SaaS Agreement Yokoy uses Partners to distribute and implement Yokoy. Some partners are also delivering parts of our service to us that we are connecting Yokoy to. Examples thereof are our VAT-Reclaim partners, our travel partners or our e-invoicing partners. An overview of our partner landscape can be found in the partner section of our website.

Individual exceptional cases excluded, the customer has individual contracts with those partners and the data necessary to provide the services will be shared with those partners. This happens on a need-to-know basis and is contractually agreed upon with the individual customer.

To manage these partnerships, we are using the partner tool Reveal. Reveal allows us to synchronize opportunities with our distribution partners to look for cooperation opportunities of mutual partners with potential customers. Aside from limiting the data shared, Reveal has a comprehensive security posture. Yokoy remains in full control of what is shared with Reveal. E. International Data transfers

We are aware that transferring data abroad requires us to take precautions. Where possible we strive to store the data within Switzerland and the EU. Since Yokoy's headquarters are in Switzerland, it is important to point out that Switzerland is recognized as a country with adequate protection of personal data just like the United Kingdom is, where we have another subsidiary. If we work with US providers, we choose EU storage wherever it is offered. In addition, most of our US processors are certified according to the EU-US Privacy Framework, the newest transfer framework that is recognized by the EU Commission as providing adequate protection of your data. Additionally, Standard Contractual Clauses are either part of the contract or signed separately. On top of that we have conducted a data transfer impact assessment in which we concluded that the risk is minimal and together with the security measures we and our partners have taken to protect the data the risk of a government intervention is minimal. Should we ever get a request from a government entity the internal procedures for how to react to such a request are in place. That said, we are aware that this is a dynamic field of law that requires continuous attention. Should action become necessary, we will act accordingly. As of the date of publication of this Privacy Policy no US request has ever been raised to any Yokoy entity.

F. Data storage and deletion

We store data during the contractual relationship with the customer. The data storage locations of our cloud provider are Zurich, Switzerland Frankfurt, Germany and St. Ghislain, Belgium.

The default data storage is defined by the contract with the customer. Upon customer request we can also store data for as long as the legal requirement for data retention in the specific customer country requires. Yokoy offers read-only access allowing auditors to access the spend management records for their specific purpose. The data can be provided in a JSON or .CSV format to the customer. The right to erasure according to Art. 17 GDPR remains unaffected and will be granted if the requirements set out in this provision are met. Data is encrypted at rest and in transit with a 256Bit-AES encryption and the keys are with Yokoy.

G. Your data protection rights

G.1. Right to confirmation Art. 25 Para 1 FADP Art. 15 GDPR

Art. 25 Para 1 FADP and 15 GDPR give you the right to request confirmation from us as to whether personal data relating to you is being processed. To do so, please contact us at dpo@yokoy.ai.

G.2. Right to information Art. 25 Para 2 FADP and Art. 15 GDPR

In accordance with Art. 15 GDPR and Art. 25 Para. 2 FADP, you also have the right to receive from us at any time and free of charge information about the data stored about you and a copy of this data in accordance with the legal provisions. To do so, please contact us via dpo@yokoy.ai This data will be provided in JSON or .csv format within 30 days according to Art. 25 Para. 7 FADP.

G.3. Right to rectification Art. 32 FADP and Art. 16 GDPR

You have the right to request the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you. You also have the right to request that incomplete personal data be completed, considering the purpose of the processing. The obligation to keep the employee user master data up to date lies with the customer, as we receive this data from the customer and are not able to verify it.

G.4. Right to erasure Art. 6 Para. 4 FADP and Art. 17 GDPR

You have the right to demand that we delete the personal data concerning you without delay, provided that one of the reasons provided for by law applies and as far as the processing or storage is not necessary. To do so, please contact us via dpo@yokoy.ai. The FADP does not specifically grant a right to erasure, but Art. 6 Para. 4 FADP is requesting the destruction or anonymization of data which are no longer necessary to fulfill the purpose.

G.5. Restriction of processing Art. 18 GDPR

You have the right to request that we restrict processing if one of the legal requirements is met. To do so, please contact us via dpo@yokoy.ai. This right is not explicitly granted in the FADP, but it is covered by the purpose limitation stipulated in Art. 6 Para. 3 FADP.

G.6. Obligation to notify Art. 9 Para. 3 FADP and Art 19 GDPR

Yokoy will communicate changes, deletions and restrictions of data processing to third parties, unless this proves impossible or involves a disproportionate effort. Art. 9 Para. 3 FADP require this in specific case of the engagement of a new subprocessor. If we do so, customers will be informed of a notice period of 14 days as stipulated in the Data Processing Agreement.

G.7. Data portability Art. 28 FADP and Art. 20 GDPR

You have the right to receive the personal data concerning you that you have provided to us in a structured, common and machine-readable format. We provide the data in .csv or JSON format. You also have the right to transfer this data to another controller without hindrance from us, to whom the personal data has been provided, provided that the processing is based on consent pursuant to Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. a GDPR or Art. 9 Para 2 lit. a GDPR or on a contract pursuant to Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. b GDPR and the processing is carried out with the aid of automated procedures, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us.

Furthermore, when exercising your right to data portability pursuant to Article 20 Para 1 GDPR, you have the right that the personal data be transferred directly from one controller to another controller, to the extent technically feasible and if this does not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of other individuals. For this purpose, the data may be provided in .CSV or .JSON format. To do so, please contact us via dpo@yokoy.ai. The right to data portability is also granted in Art. 28 FADP, but restrictions apply on feasibility and proportionality.

G.8. Objection Art. 30 Para. 2 lit. b FADP and Art. 21 GDPR

You have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your situation, to the processing of personal data concerning you that is carried out based on Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. e or lit. f GDPR. This also applies to profiling based on these provisions within the meaning of Art. 4 No. 4 GDPR.

If you object, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

In individual cases, we process personal data to conduct direct advertising. You may object to the processing of personal data for the purpose of such advertising at any time. This also applies to profiling, as far as it is associated with such direct advertising. If you object to the processing for direct marketing purposes, we will no longer process the personal data for these purposes.

You also have the right to object, on grounds relating to your situation, to the processing of personal data concerning you which is carried out by us for scientific or historical research purposes or for statistical purposes pursuant to Art. 89 Para. 1 GDPR, unless such processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.

Notwithstanding Directive 2002/58/EC, you are free to exercise your right to object to the use of information society services by automated means using technical specifications. To do so, please contact us via dpo@yokoy.ai.

G.9. Revocation of consent in Art. 7 Para. 3 GDPR

You have the right to revoke your consent to the processing of personal data in accordance with Art. 7 Para. 3 GDPR at any time with effect for the future. To do so, please contact us via dpo@yokoy.ai.

G.10. Complaint to a supervisory authority

You have the right to lodge a complaint about the processing of personal data by us with a supervisory authority responsible for data protection in accordance with Art. 77 GDPR.
